Section 1: General Information

Your Notice of Proposed Property Taxes is also known as your TRIM notice, short for "truth in millage." This is not a bill but a statutorily required notice mailed to all property owners annually. It precedes the certification of the tax roll and your actual tax bill. Please review your TRIM notice carefully. If you have questions regarding the values or exemptions listed, please call the Property Appraiser's office.

Section 2: Property Values and Taxing Authorities

This section of your notice identifies the current taxing authorities and allows you to compare last year's property values with the proposed values for this year. These values will be uploaded to our website once they are certified, typically in mid-October. Additional information, including simplified descriptions of market value, assessed value, taxable value, and other important terms, can be found on the back of the notice.

If you have questions about the values listed, a simple conversation with a member of our staff will generally clear up most questions and concerns. The deadline to file a petition with the Value Adjustment Board is 5 p.m. on September 12, 2025. You may file via this link: Value Adjustment Board \(VAB\)

Section 3: Tax Rates and Property Taxes

This section of your notice displays the tax rates and property taxes for each taxing authority:

- Column 1: Last year's taxable property value
- Column 2: Last year's tax rate
- Column 3: Your property taxes last year
- Column 4: This year's proposed taxable property value
- Column 5: This year's proposed tax rate if no budget change is made
- Column 6: Your proposed property taxes if no budget change is made
- Column 7: This year's proposed tax rate if the proposed budget is approved
- Column 8: Your proposed property taxes if the proposed budget is approved

Public Hearings

Before taking final action, each taxing authority will hold a hearing to discuss their budget and proposed tax rates.

The date, time and location of each taxing authority's upcoming public hearing is provided on the back side of the notice. For questions or concerns about public hearings, please contact the appropriate taxing authority directly.

Section 4: Assessment Reductions, Exemptions and Non-Ad Valorem Assessments

Properties may receive an assessment reduction for a number of reasons (i.e. portability, agricultural classification). If the assessed value of your property is lower than your market value, the difference and the reason for the difference is listed in the box titled "Assessment Reductions."

Properties may also receive property tax exemptions based on certain qualifications of the property owner. The amount or percentage of each exemption that is being applied to your property is listed in the box titled "Exemptions."

This section of your notice also displays non ad-valorem assessments that are separate from your property taxes. These assessments are placed on your notice at the request of the individual levying authorities and may include, but are not limited to, fees for solid waste, stormwater, road paving and fire service.

Your final tax bill may include additional assessments not reflected on this notice. For questions or concerns, about these assessments, please contact the appropriate levying authority.
